Direct Debit Terms & Conditions

- Your financial institution may charge a fee for Direct Debit payments.
- You should check:
 - With your financial institution whether direct debiting is available from your account.
 - Your account details are correct by checking them against a current account statement/credit card.
- If you wish to cancel, stop or defer a Direct Debit payment you must notify us at least 7 days prior to the next debit day.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient clear funds available in your account to allow a debit payment to be made in accordance with the direct debit request.
- If there are insufficient clear funds in your account to meet a debit payment:
 - You may be charged a fee by your financial institution.
 - You will also incur fees or charges imposed or incurred by us.
 - You must arrange for the debit payment to be made by another method or arrange for sufficient clear funds to be in your account by an agreed time so we may process the payment.
- You should check your account statement to verify that the amounts debited from your account are correct.
- We will keep any information in your direct debit request confidential. We will make reasonable efforts to keep any such information that we have about you secure and to ensure that any of our employees or agents who have access to information about you do not make any unauthorized use, modification, reproduction or disclosure of that information.
